Tinder is the world's most popular online dating app founded by Sean Rad in 2012 on a university campus. The app is released globally for Android, iOS, and the web with support for over 56 languages.

Tinder requires you to sign up using your Facebook account and is very simple and fun to meet new people.

Whether you're looking for friends/need a date today, or just want to chat, Tinder helps you discover new people whenever and wherever you like by giving you hundreds of possibilities to find relationships, meet friends, or find a date.

There's no limit to the number of people you match and chat with. And it's very easy to connect with people.

All that you've to do is to use the Swipe Right feature to like someone, and if someone likes you back, it's a match. Then just tap through the people you're interested in meeting to spark something new.

However, if you're looking for something a little more serious, we've got something for local singles everywhere, plus features that give you the best dating experience possible.

So, if you'd like to experience Tinder with full features unlocked, dive right in and sign in to the app with our latest collection of Tinder free accounts to find relationships with endless possibilities.
